On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Liverpool who come to Burnden Park after a trip into the depths of Europe last week to play Russian side Dynamo Tbilisi.

Liverpool obviously need little introduction from me as League champions and a side that has won virtually every honour in the game.

Under manager Bob Paisley they have gone from strength to strength and they have set themselves very high standards indeed.

We went to Anfield earlier in the season and earned a point in a goalless draw.

I thought we did well and Liverpool are sure to find that teams will start to organise themselves better and better against them. But it must be like playing a Cup Final every game for them.

These notes were written before our game at Derby on Saturday and at Norwich the previous weekend, we were very unfortunate to lose 2-1. We had a goal disallowed which looked perfectly good and it looked to me as if we could well have had a penalty as well.

As you will know by now I never comment about referees.

Then came the Anglo Scottish Cup quarter-final second leg against St. Mirren at Burnden. We were trying to come back from a 4-2 deficit after the first leg and thanks to a couple of Sam Allardyce specials we were level 4-4 at the end of 90 minutes.

The rules of the competition bring in away goals as counting double - but only after extra time.

This meant that if there had been no goals in the extra period we would have gone through into the semi-finals. But a headed St. Mirren goal just two minutes from the end put us out.

We never like losing, but I must say I thought the game was a good one and that we played quite well. We also played well at Norwich and I am hoping that we have now put some of our poorer performances firmly behind us.

Tonight's game is certain to have a special atmosphere about it because Liverpool bring a lot of fans with them. I look forward to an intriguing encounter.

Welcome to LIVERPOOL

LIVERPOOL — GREATEST OF ALL TIME!

Liverpool are the finest club team English soccer has ever produced! That's not a matter of opinion, but hard fact. A club's claims to fame can only be based upon its achievements on the field and, in this respect, the evidence is irrefutable.

In five years under Bob Paisley Liverpool have won the European Cup twice, the UEFA Cup and three League Championships — something no other English side has achieved over a similar period.

Last season the Reds won the League Championship with a new record number of points (68) for the First Division and also established a new record for the fewest goals conceded (16).

But, of course, Liverpool did not attain their success by playing defensive football. They also won a newspaper prize for scoring more First Division goals (85) than any other club.

It was one of the most commendable all-round performances of all time.

Liverpool, and Bob Paisley, have done more for English football than just winning trophies and setting new records. By refusing to get drawn into the ridiculous inflationary transfer spiral, they have proved that modest buys, combined with good youth policy, can achieve more lasting success than lavish spending in the transfer market.

The Anfield club has never paid a record fee for any player. This summer Mr. Paisley invested £500,000 — modest on today's standards — for two experienced international players — Frank McGarvey (Scotland) and Avi Cohen (Israel).

This has been the pattern over the years — a gradual evolution of a new team. During the summer England captain Emlyn Hughes, who had already lost his place in the Liverpool side, moved on to Wolves but Mr. Paisley had already established, in Alan Hansen his successor in the middle of the defence.

Cohen, an Israel international defender, was bought from Macabi for £200,000 but, like other big names who arrived at Liverpool in the past, he could have to spend some time in the reserves before he takes over in the first-team. He got his first outing against Leeds when Ray Kennedy was injured.

The back four continued as it ended last season with Phil Neal, Phil Thompson, Alan Hansen and Alan Kennedy filling the defensive positions. But, when Hansen several times had to drop out through injury, it gave Colin Irwin his first chance to play in the senior team.

We shall probably see Terry McDermott, Jimmy Case, Ray Kennedy and Graeme Souness form the midfield, with Kenny Dalglish and David Johnson operating as the two strikers.

By their own high standards, Liverpool made a slow start to the season. We held them to a 0–0 draw at Anfield in their opening game and, though they defeated West Bromwich 3–1 there a few days later, they could only draw 0–0 at Tranmere in the League Cup and then lost a League game 2–3 at Southampton.

It was after smashing home four second-half goals against Tranmere in the second leg of the League Cup that the Reds returned to something like their true form and they then hit Coventry 4–0 at Anfield.

A 1–1 draw at Leeds was followed by their 2–1 success over Dynamo Tbilisi at Anfield in the first-leg of the European Cup. They were due to play their tough return game last week.

Last season Liverpool's dream of winning the European Cup three seasons in succession was killed when they were knocked out in the first round by Nottingham Forest. They then dedicated themselves to regaining the League title which they did in style.

In setting up a new defensive record of only 16 goals conceded, the Reds established a remarkable feat at Anfield where they conceded only four goals in 25 home League and Cup matches.

When Liverpool took their unbeaten home record to 42 League and Cup matches at Anfield with their European Cup match against Tbilisi they looked back at a run in which no visiting side had managed to score more than once at Anfield since Ipswich drew there 2–2 in April 1978.

Sportsman's Dinner

October 22 is the date of the next Sportsman's Dinner in the Executive Club.

And the guests will certainly bring back memories of the days when England was the team everyone else had to beat. Executive Club manager Nat Lofthouse has enlisted two of his former England colleagues, Billy Wright and Stan Mortensen, as after-dinner speakers while a host of sporting celebrities will be around the table.

Tony Book, John Higgins, Brian Edwards, Paddy Crerand and the immortal Dixie Dean have promised to attend along with current Wanderers and Manchester United players and officials.

It all starts at 7.30 p.m. with dinner at 8p.m. and tickets are now available at £10 each from the Executive Club.

Dressing in Style

Modern day footballers are recognised as "snappy" dressers and the Wanderers players are no exception.

Be it the ultra-trendy style of Frank Worthington, the up-to-the-minute casual attire of Willie Morgan and Peter Reid or the more formal yet fashionable suits worn by Alan Gowling and Neil Whatmore the Super Whites are always in the forefront of the latest fashion trends.

And on Wednesday, October 17, several of the players will be modelling the Magna Carta collection at a fashion show in the Executive Club.

Tickets are on sale at the Development Office (70p) and a later bar will be operating.

If that's not enough to tempt the fellows along a number of attractive young ladies will be showing fashions by Paul Michelle in a complete "His n' Hers" show starting at 8p.m.

Programme Fair

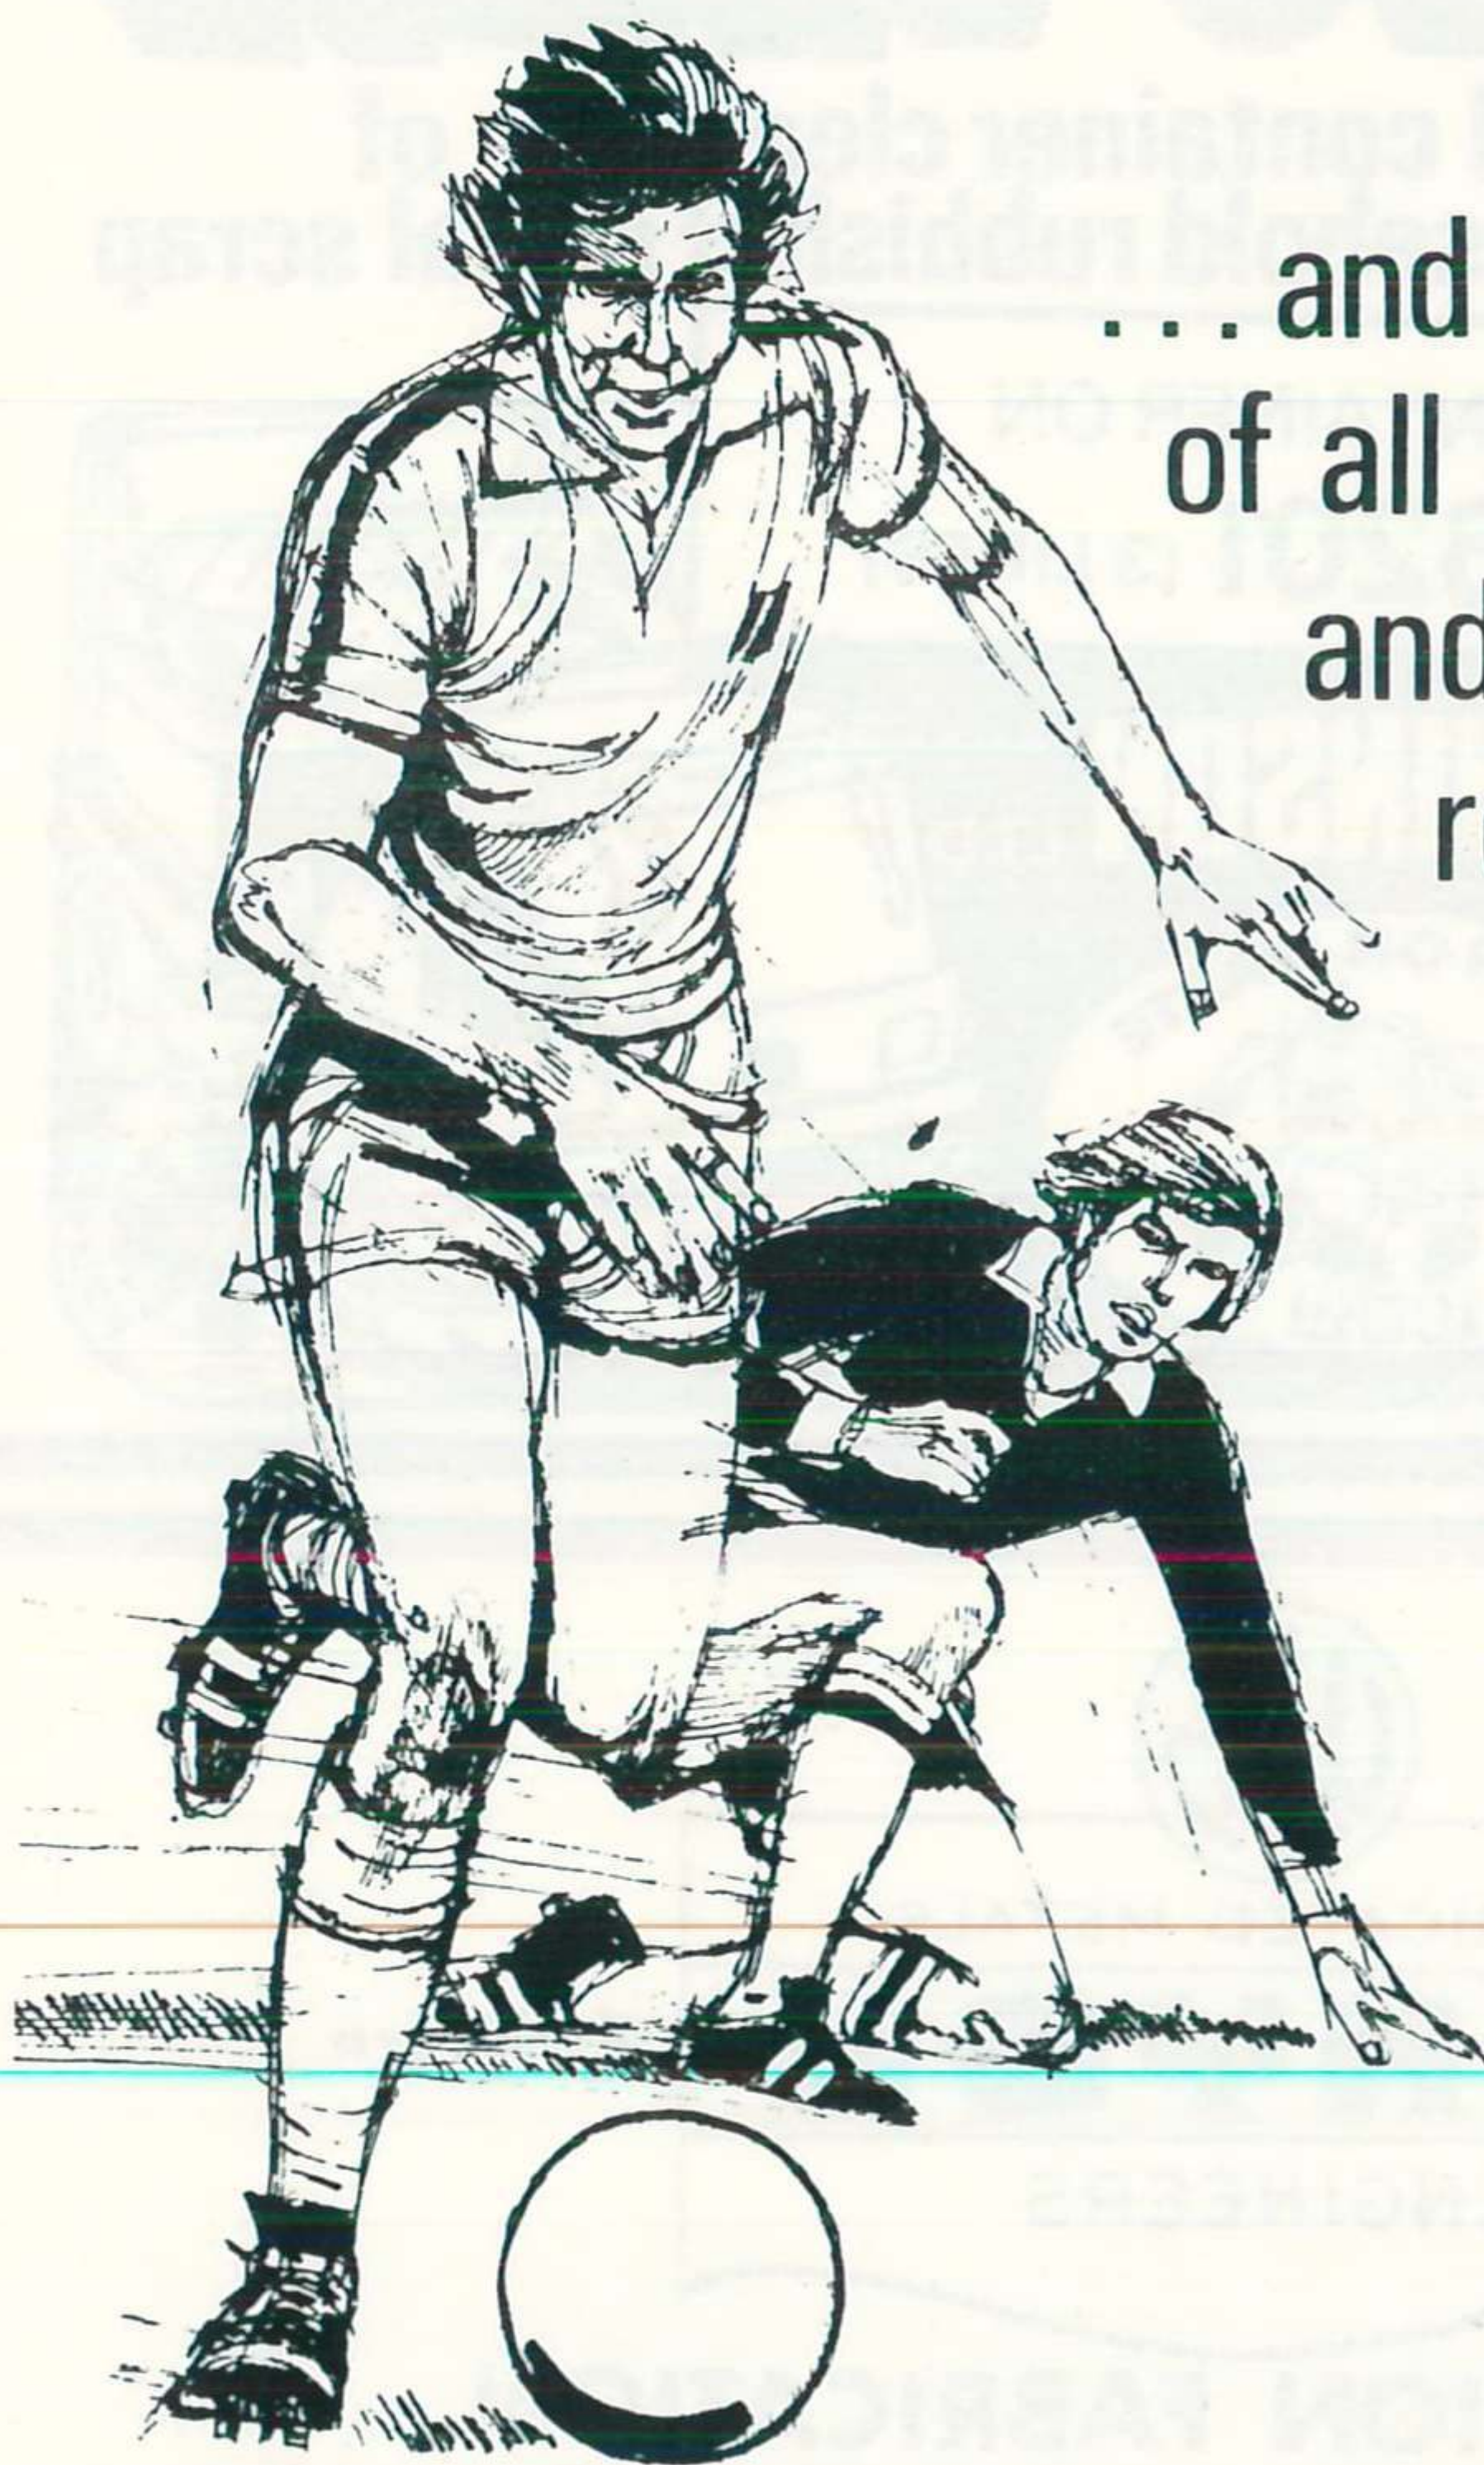

The fifth annual Bolton Football Programme Fair will be held on Sunday, October 14 in the Banqueting Suite at the Pack Horse Hotel, Bradshawgate from 11 a.m. to 2.30 p.m. Thousands of programmes old and new will be available.

RAY CLEMENCE (Goalkeeper) Ray has built a wonderful record on consistency for Liverpool, having missed only four League games in over nine years. He was signed from Scunthorpe United in 1967 and has now played for England on 45 occasions.

PHIL NEAL (Defender) Phil spent almost seven years in the Northampton team and in 1972/73 he was their top scorer with 11 goals. Liverpool signed him for £60,000 in 1974 and he is now a regular member of the England team, with 21 caps.

PHIL THOMPSON (Defender) Phil came through from the juniors to make his League debut in 1971/72 and he has been a permanent member of the senior side for six years. He is now playing himself into the England team and he has 16 caps so far.

ALAN HANSEN (Defender) Alan made his name in Scottish football with Partick Thistle and, after three years in their first-team, he was snapped up by Liverpool for £100,000 in 1977. He hit top form last season and was capped twice by Scotland. Injuries have kept him out of several games this season.

COLIN IRWIN (Defender) Liverpool-born Colin has been playing in the first-team for the first time this season while Hansen has been injured. He netted his first League goal at Southampton.

ALAN KENNEDY (Defender) Alan established himself in the Newcastle defence in the early 'seventies and gained England under-23 recognition. He played for the Magpies twice at Wembley and in 1978 he was transferred to Liverpool for £300,000.

AVI COHEN (Defender) Avi is an Israel international defender but he played his first senior game for Liverpool in midfield. Liverpool signed him from Macabi for £200,000 in the summer.

RAY KENNEDY (Midfield) Ray was once rejected by Port Vale but became a top striker with Arsenal. He led the Gunners' scoring list on two occasions and it was after his £200,000 transfer to Liverpool that he switched to midfield and gained 11 England caps.

GRAEME SOUNESS (Midfield) Graeme served his apprenticeship with Tottenham but didn't get into their first-team. Middlesbrough signed him for £30,000 in 1972 but collected £350,000 when he moved on to Liverpool last season. Graeme has been capped by Scotland on 13 occasions.

TERRY McDERMOTT (Midfield) Terry, who has six England caps, began League life with Bury in 1969/70 and moved on to Newcastle for £25,000 in 1973. Liverpool signed him a couple of years later for £175,000.

JIMMY CASE (Midfield/Forward) Jimmy made his League debut for Liverpool in 1974/75 and has been part of the team for almost four years. He is a former England under-23 international.

FRANK McGARVEY (Midfield/Forward) Frank joined Liverpool from St. Mirren for £300,000 shortly before the end of last season. Soon after his arrival he gained his first full Scottish cap, thus adding to his previous under-21 honours.

KENNY DALGLISH (Forward) Kenny has been Liverpool's top scorer in each of his two seasons since joining them from Celtic for £400,000, netting 30 in 1977/78 and 25 last season. Kenny hit 158 goals in six seasons of domestic competitions for Celtic and he now has 66 Scottish caps.

DAVID JOHNSON (Forward) David was Liverpool's leading scorer with six goals. David opened his career with Merseyside Rivals Everton and was transferred to Ipswich for £50,000 in 1972. While with the Suffolk club, David won three England caps and he returned to Merseyside when Liverpool paid £200,000 for him in 1976.

STEVE HEIGHWAY (Forward) Steve joined the Reds from Skelmersdale in 1970 and won an immediate first-team place. It wasn't long before he was drafted into the Republic of Ireland team and he now looks back on 21 international appearances.

DAVID FAIRCLOUGH (Forward) David first appeared in the Liverpool side in 1975/76, mostly as substitute, and he soon earned his "Super Sub" tag after coming on to score a series of vital goals. He has not been in the side a lot recently, though, but he did score when he came on as substitute against Tranmere in the League Cup.

Wanderers - a unique record

Today we present part seven of the magnificent new series which charts the Wanderers' progress right back from their First Football League match in 1888 right up until the present day.

Roy on way to 500

PAUL Madeley made his 500th League appearance for Leeds United when the Yorkshiremen took on Manchester City at Elland Road recently.

Football enthusiasts throughout the country will be pleased to see the Leeds and England "utility" player pass such an esteemed landmark and even happier to know that he marked his 35th birthday by signing a new 5 year contract with his club.

To stay at one club for so long and command a regular first team place is quite an achievement. In Madeley's case, he has had the luxury of achieving this distinction with a highly successful club.

What then of Wanderers' skipper Roy Greaves, who, barring loss of form or injury looks set to pass the 500 mark this season?

Roy has been a regular choice in Bolton colours since October 1965 when he made his debut. Wanderers were in the second division in those days.

Even when Wanderers were relegated to Division Three, Farnworth-born Roy stayed on and battled away as hard as the next man to see his side back in their rightful position in Division One.

In that time Roy has been a first teamer under six different managers. First Bill Ridding, then Nat Lofthouse as manager and then administrative manager; Jimmy McIlroy; Jimmy Meadows; Jimmy Armfield and now his namesake Ian Greaves.

Up to the start of this season Roy had played 466 League games for Wanderers plus six as substitute, but he has already passed the 500 mark when League, League Cup and other first class fixtures are included.

The club's appearance record is currently held by Roy's team-mate in his early days, goalkeeper Eddie Hopkinson who notched up 519 appearances.

That record may well fall some time early on next season. If fitness is anything to go by, Roy who is well noted for his stamina, will go on to create a new record himself.

Roy is by no means the most experienced player on Wanderers' books.

That record is held by Willie Morgan who has notched up 564 League games. He played 183 in his first spell with Burnley; 236 with Manchester United; 12 more when he returned to Turf Moor; and at the start of this season had notched up 133 with Wanderers.

Frank Worthington's tally is more than 450 with Huddersfield, Leicester and Wanderers and Dave Clement came to Burnden having played 403 League games for Queen Park Rangers.

Incidentally Dave passed the 500 mark in all first class matches when Wanderers beat Southampton 2-1 on August 25 this year.

In his days, Roy Greaves has picked up all sorts of injuries, but none so odd as those he received in the League games against Leeds and Norwich City recently.

After the Leeds game, Roy needed three stitches in a cut on his right eye — the result of an accidental clash of heads.

Within a week the stitches were out and all he was left with was a scar for his troubles.

Lo and behold the sutures were out again the following Saturday when Roy got an identical cut — this time over his left eye — in a similar clash of heads.

Junior Whites News

It was a happy band of Junior White members who left Burnden Park on September 27 to visit Blackpool Illuminations.

The trip was one of several events planned for members of the Junior Whites Club whose numbers are fast approaching the 1,000 mark. Each month every member goes into a draw for a £5 voucher to be spent in the Happy Shop. The winning membership number will be announced in the match programme and the prize can be claimed from the Executive Club.

The first winner for the month of September is:

Member Number 312.

If this is your number contact Margaret Rowlinson on Bolton 29433.

We would also like to hear from Junior Whites about anything that might be of interest to readers of the match programme. Are you in your school football, hockey or netball team? Have you won an award of some kind?

Whatever it might be let Junior Whites secretary Margaret Rowlinson have the details and we'll see if we can include it in a future programme.

Cash Cracker Lottery

Bolton Wanderers are moving into the eighties with an exciting new rub-off lottery ticket which will provide thousands of extra chances of a big cash prize.

The Wanderers are the first soccer club in the country to be offered the new format ticket offering instant prizes. Yes, instant!

Every single winner — be it 25p or £1,000 — can be paid out within minutes. No waiting, no arguments — just instant cash.

And as an opening bonus there's a special star feature allowing entry into a Top Value Christmas Hamper draw worth over £150.

All lottery agents have been invited to a free buffet evening at Burnden Park on Wednesday, 7 November when David Exall — an acknowledged world expert on lottery schemes — will explain the fabulous Cash Cracker ticket in detail.

If you're not yet an agent now's your chance to join in at the start of the most exciting development in football.

INVASION OF YUGOSLAV GOALKEEPERS!

Europe seems to be littered with former Yugoslav international goalkeepers! Three of them were lined up during the summer to sign for clubs in Western Europe, Chelsea last season signed the colourful Petar Borota and during the past few days Derby County have been considering signing yet another — Ivan Katalinic.

Whether or not Yugoslavia have any current international goalkeepers, it is difficult to say. The point is that Eastern European players of international status are permitted to move out of their home country for a limited time once they have reached the age of 28.

The lure of lucrative contracts on this side of the Iron Curtain has brought many of their players to the big Western clubs. Katalinic was on the point of signing for West Bromwich Albion on the eve of this season and might have done so had not Tony Godden decided to re-sign.

Albion had agreed a £200,000 fee with his club, Hajduk Split, but the combination of Godden's change of heart, and the urgent need for a striker, persuaded manager Ron Atkinson to drop his interest in Katalinic.

Derby County invited the player to train with them and were impressed enough to make a bid of £175,000 which was accepted by Hajduk. If the red tape has been sorted out, Katalinic might be making his League debut for Derby any day.

Another Yugoslav — not a goalkeeper this time! — has been in the news this week. Ivan Golac, Southampton's Yugoslav international defender, walked out of The Dell shortly before the home game with Tottenham because he was unhappy with terms.

Golac was happy enough to get a game with the Saints last season — he made his first appearance against Bolton at The Dell — and had, according to the club, accepted a new contract in August this year. He missed one game then, before agreement was reached, but after only five more games he decided to make another stand.

Southampton made an interesting positional switch when Golac disappeared shortly before the kick-off, moving striker Trevor Hebbard into the right-back position. He made such a big impression that he held his place.

Golac has now agreed new terms and has been back in the Saints' side.

It seems to be a modern trend in First Division football to experiment with forwards in defence. When former Bolton defender Don McAllister was unavailable, Spurs switched last season's top scorer, centre-forward Colin Lee, to left-back.

Lee, in fact, began his career with Bristol City as a defender but he didn't seem too happy in the back four on this occasion. So manager Keith Burkinshaw then played Ricardo Villa, his Argentinian international attacking midfield player in the number three shirt. That did not work out, either, but McAllister returned to solve that particular problem.

Middlesbrough's Billy Ashcroft is another well-known goalscorer who has been playing with success in the back four this season. But the most surprising adaptation concerns Bristol City's Clive Whitehead, a ball-playing outside-left who was weak in the tackle and did not appear to have anything to commend him as a defensive figure. He, in fact, has been turning in some superb performances at left-back!

In the age of the £1½-million footballer, Arsenal seem to have pulled off the bargain of the decade in securing the transfer of former England midfield man John Hollins from Q.P.R. for a mere £75,000. Hollins has been playing some brilliant football, forming a highly creative midfield with Liam Brady and Brian Talbot.

The reason for Hollins' modest fee was his age. Yet, even if he gives the Gunners only one season, he was still cheap at today's prices.

Hollins' success has meant bad news for David Price, though. A Highbury professional for seven years, Price only established himself in the first-team last season when he made one of the Gunners' goals in the F.A. Cup final. Now his immediate future looks bleak and it would not be surprising to find him turning up on new colours before the season is out.

Arsenal, of course, will be at Burnden Park on Saturday so we shall have the opportunity to see at first-hand how Hollins has revitalised their midfield.

Meet the Ref

HAMIL, ALEX J. (Wolverhampton). Commenced refereeing in 1959 and via local leagues, Midland Combination and West Midland League reached the Football League line and full list in 1973. Refereed the West Midland Cup (1972) and Birmingham Senior Cup (1973) Finals and F.A. Trophy Semi-Final (1978). Lined the Scotland v. Ireland International in 1976, and Wales v. Ireland in 1978.

Married, and with one son, he is a Senior Foreman in Government Workshops and is interested in training and local football competitions.

How to get there

Here is your RAC route to the Wanderers' game at Nottingham Forest.

Leave Bolton on A666/M61 merging with M62/M63 (follow 'Stockport' signs) south to Cheadle junction (present terminal M63) with A560. (19 miles)

A560 to Stockport junction A6. (21 miles)

A6 via Whaley Bridge to Chapel-en-le-Frith junction with A623. (37 miles)

A623 via Peak Forest to Baslow junction with A619. (52 miles)

A619 to Chesterfield junction with A617. (63 miles)

A617 to M1 intersection at Heath. (68 miles)

M1 south for 16 miles to intersection 26/26A junction with A610. (84 miles)

A610 to Nottingham. (90 miles)

Nottingham Forest's ground is just over 1½ miles south of the city centre near the junction of the A60 and A52. Approaching Nottingham from M1 turn right onto the Ring Road (Western Boulevard) continuing with the Ring Road to the Clifton Flyover.

Turn right off the Flyover as signposted M1, turning right again at the roundabout with the signs for Grantham down Clifton Lane and Wilford Lane to Loughborough Road where you turn left for Trent Bridge.

Forest's ground is just off Radcliffe Road before you cross Trent Bridge.

Wanderers Travel Club

Travel facilities to away games are again available through the official Wanderers Travel Club to members who produce their membership card when booking and carry their card on all coach or rail trips.

Membership of the Travel Club for the coming season is now being accepted by the promotions office and costs just 50p for the year (free for agents).

A passport size photograph is all that is required along with the membership fee. Support your team and follow the Wanderers with the official Travel Club, starting with the trip to the City Ground, home of European champions Nottingham Forest, on Saturday October 20.

But remember — membership does NOT guarantee a seat. You must book early in the week to be sure of travelling.

Jim can fix it!

Friends and fans of JIM HEADRIGE, Wanderers' physiotherapist, will have no problem in wondering where to book in for their late holiday.

When he's not tending the pulls and strains of your favourite soccer stars, Jim is Mine Host of nine neat holiday flats which are available for long weekends or weekly lets at Blackpool — still the North's most popular spot, and just an hour from Burnden Park.

The flats are centrally heated, and each has its own TV, fridge, cooker and sink. Some have separate kitchens, and extra bedrooms are available for family parties. Bed linen is provided.

Fancy a break? Ring 0253 727066 and see if Jim can fix it, at Osborne Holiday Flats, 24 Withnell Road, South Shore, Blackpool — just a minute from the bracing South Shore Pleasure Beach and South Pier.

On the air...

Patients in Bolton's hospitals can now spend three hours at Burnden Park every match day thanks to a new radio link direct from the ground provided by the Hospital Saturday Football Fund.

The new equipment allows the hospital wards to tune into the 90 minute pre-match programme of news, information and record dedications as well as a commentary on the whole game.

And already the patients have welcomed the improved service.

Record requests are flooding into the ground both from patients themselves and from friends and relatives who wish to pass on get well messages over the air.

If there's a birthday, wedding anniversary, engagement, get well message or dedication of any kind you would like to make, simply write to the programme presenters Alan or Kevan at Burnden Park and they will do the rest.
